PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Best West Rotarians

October is designated month for Economic and Community Development. It was coincidental that most of our activities this month were in synchronisation to it. The month began with sponsoring basic amenities to Kinathukadavu GH and thanks to Rtn. Alagirisamy for his benevolence. Successful Eye screening camp along with Aravind Eye Hospital at Muthugoundenpudur and sponsoring materials worth more than a lakh to Helping Hearts Hospice was well appreciated. Thanks to Rtn. PR Sundaram and Rtn Chandran for their timely sponsor. Diwali celebration with volunteers and inmates of Helping Hearts and bamboo sapling distribution was well organised. Necessity is the mother of innovation. The safety of the members amidst pandemic led to an innovative morning speaker meeting at The Farmstead with natural ambience and a menu flavoured with organic food was enjoyed by members and their family. The response to such unusual meeting motivates us to organise many such innovative programmes. With the spontaneous support from members, we shall have many such good projects in the upcoming months too.

Warm regards Rtn. T. Goodwin Saravana Raja President

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

Hello and welcome to the October edition of Rotawest!

Besides the lofty ideals of non violence , freedom, equality and religious tolerance ,Gandhiji also taught us how people can help in the advancement of social and political change! Rotary west has certainly put this to practice. Amidst the festivities of Navarathri, with the Rotary theme of October -Economic and community services - in mind ,our President, Secretary and their team of efficient members went about several such projects!

Dear fellow Rotarians,

In some parts of the world, the last part of the year, the 'ember' months are believed to be unfortunate and are dreaded. Not so for the spirited Rotarians, President Goodwin and Secretary Chandrasekhar, who look for opportunities to help the unfortunate, with a medley of projects.

It gives us great pleasure to present you the October issue of Rota W

Happy reading!

Regards, Rtn Rajagopal

Our editorial team has put together this issue with enthusiasm and I am sure it will be a good read!
